Elder Education Enrichment (EEE)

EEE is a lifelong learning organization presenting 12 weeks of interesting and diverse programs each fall and spring. It is open to anyone wanting educational experiences just for the joy of learning--no tests, papers, or grades. We are run by volunteers and supported by dues. Membership also entitles you to attend programs at 8 OLLI (Osher Lifelong Learning Institutes) sites throughout Vermont and gives you the discounted member rate for OLLI at UVM campus programs.

The Program Committee is the lifeblood of EEE, providing us with excellent speakers on timely and interesting topics. The committee:

- meets regularly to plan each semester
- identifies topics and themes for the program
- identifies and contacts possible speakers
- schedules speakers and acts as liaison for their presentations
- seeks feedback and reviews program evaluations

Would you be willing to serve on the Program Committee or provide speaker/topic suggestions and contact information to the committee?

yes  not at this time

The Special Events Committee ensures that EEE is a social as well as an intellectual experience. The committee:

- meets to plan special events for EEE participants
- organizes and manages coffee hours
- plans and manages a December luncheon and May annual meeting
- plans and participates in field trips

Would you be willing to help out or serve on the Special Events Committee?

yes  not right now

Please share your suggestions for future programs, speakers, or field trips:
